United States District Judge

Re: United States v. Jordan Campbell, et al., 20 Cr. 625 (KMK)

Dear Judge Karas:

The Government and all parties in this matter are in the later stages of plea negotiations. Finalizing those resolutions have been hampered by the uptick in COVID-19 cases and related restrictions at various jails. Given this, the parties respectfully request a six-week adjournment to allow for pleas to be finalized.¹ The Government also respectfully requests that time be excluded under the Speedy Trial Act until the date of the rescheduled status conference. Such an exclusion would be in the interest of justice to allow the parties time to continue discussing pre-trial dispositions. See 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A). All parties consent to the adjournment and exclusion of time

Respectfully submitted,

Granted. The 1/18/22 conference is adjourned to 3/18/22, at 9:00. Time is excluded until then, in the interests of justice, to allow the Parties to finalize their plea discussions, which have been disrupted by the recent spike in Covid cases. The interests of justice from this exclusion outweigh Defendants' and the public's interest in a speedy trial. See 18 U.S.C. Section 3161(h)(7)(A). By:
